The Times.

Office—Temple, Main and New High.
By Mail Received in the Morn.

There is some warm literature in the report of yesterday's Democratic County Convention, published elsewhere.

Between Stinson and the Herald, Heart will begin to think it will be money in his pocket if he had never been born.

In Geromino is indeed about to surrender, as alleged by the dispatches, it will be a jumpy feather in Gen. Miles' cap. The feather, however, is not yet plucked.

There was to receive a full party vote in the election, but good nominations. When pushed too far, even the most faithful partisans and sturdy Republican voters revolt.

In making nominations for county officers, good nominations were made.

There was no reason to alter its judgment, expressed two weeks ago, that both party and public necessity required that certain nominations which are being sought for county office, be not made. The Republican party and the people are not to be deceived by the promises of the Democratic party.

The Times yesterday received from a private, but well-informed source in San Francisco, a dispatch regarding the view of throwing it to Blake after it has been won from Diamond, Reed and Swift. We give the dispatch as it comes, without comment, as it is not probable that even Mr. Higgins can buy and sell the San Francisco delegation as a body, however with some of its members.

Hon. H. H. Markham writes to his attorney, Mr. D. G. Gilchrist, under date of Monterey, Wednesday, saying that the last three weeks of legislative life so exhausted him, that he has sought the pine forests of Northern California for rest and recuperation. Hence he will not be here to attend the Republican State Convention, nor has he changed his determination not to be a candidate for re-election to Congress. A fact which will be regretted all along the line.

The refusal of the Democratic County Convention to endorse Heart for Governor was significant. It was also unkind to the 'steamed Herald, whose candidate Heart is. The refusal of the delegates to endorse Heart, is the arms of the Democratic party, and the only available candidate for Governor. The action of the convention in making an air-cushion of Mr. Fisher's resolutions reaffirming certain original and profound Democratic principles. What mean these strange things? Is the party of Jefferson and Jackson to take the medicine that used to be fed to their followers, like milk to babes, by those ancient medicine-men of the tribe?

AMUSEMENTS.

ORANGE'S HOME CONCERT.—The grand concert for the benefit of the Orphan's Home took place last night at the Grand Opera House. The program was a most successful one, and the audience, though not so large as on previous occasions, was well satisfied. The concert was given by the Orphan's Home, and the proceeds were for the benefit of the same.

THE LITTLE LOU.—The little Lou, a young girl, who has been making a name for herself in the musical world, will appear at the Grand Opera House on Monday night. She is a most talented and accomplished singer, and her performance is expected to be a most successful one.

STATE POLITICS.

Delegates Who Will Imitate the Early Bird.

AND CAPTURE TIME BY THE FORELOCK.

Prepared to Carry their Contest to the Convention.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—A few of the San Francisco delegates to the State Convention left for Los Angeles by rail to-day, but the majority will go on Monday afternoon next. A great many politicians and friends of the various candidates will also leave at that time, and the railroad company proposes, owing to the large number of people to be carried, to run the train in two sections. Gen. Barnes, delegate-at-large from this city, will start for the convention on that day, as will also Gen. W. H. Dimond.

The Dirigo Club have decided to go in a body to the convention, and will be accompanied by a contingent from this city, as many prefer to go in advance to avoid the rush, and in order that they may be prepared for business when the time comes.

The steamship Orizaba, which sailed last evening, carried away the following named gentlemen en route for Los Angeles: William T. Higgins, H. L. Kowalsky, Philip C. McGowan, and Kelly, J. P. Finlayson, Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee; George W. Barnes, Judge of the Superior Court; and J. B. Butler. Mr. Kowalsky goes at this early date to make preparations for laying a protest before the convention, and in the event of the Committee of Ten throwing out the returns from several precincts in the county, which would result in Assembly district, thereby defeating himself and several other delegates.

The Head of the Ticket.

As far as heard from, the candidates for Governor to come before the Republican State Convention are six, viz:
John F. Smith, of San Francisco;
Charles F. Reed, of Yolo; Chancellor Harrison, of Napa; W. H. Dimond, of San Francisco; Frederick Adams, of San Luis Obispo; and W. H. Brown, of Calaveras.

It is still difficult to form any close estimate of the strength of the various candidates. As a rule the interior delegates go unpledged, but, in many cases, their preferences have been declared in open convention, or learned unofficially. The candidate who appears to have been most favored in this respect is Swift. His strength is not pronounced in any one locality, but is spread over the State more generally than that of any other candidate.

The other candidates will probably develop strength in one locality or the other. As a rule the interior delegates go unpledged, but, in many cases, their preferences have been declared in open convention, or learned unofficially.

The San Francisco delegation, which was to caucus yesterday, has postponed its meeting until its members arrive in Los Angeles, in order to secure a full attendance. There is lack of harmony in the delegation, to state the case mildly, and it brings down several conflicting statements as to the result of the convention. This will occupy time and ward off all danger of an acrobate in the convention; likewise, the indignities of Morpheus.

The very latest advice received as to the result of the convention is that the Republican ticket will be made up of the following: John F. Smith, of San Francisco; Charles F. Reed, of Yolo; Chancellor Harrison, of Napa; W. H.
Dimond, of San Francisco; Frederick Adams, of San Luis Obispo; and W. H.
Brown, of Calaveras.

By our next issue (Tuesday morning) we hope to have some reasonably close estimates to present to our readers.

The State Convention.
The time is close at hand for the assembling of the Republican State Convention. The clause are gathering, and some of them are already on the march for Los Angeles. By tomorrow night there will be a very considerable number of delegates on the ground. The prospect is that the convention will be very largely attended.

A dispatch printed in the Times this morning states that the train to arrive tomorrow will be in two sections, indicating that it will be a long one. There is a very large number of delegates on the ground, and the prospect is that the convention will be very largely attended.

The train will present a full report of the proceedings from day to day, but it is a very large number of delegates on the ground, and the prospect is that the convention will be very largely attended.

In the Ventura county delegation to the State Convention, yesterday, General Vandever was the choice for Congress. It is the first gun, and, coming from the General's own home, may be the beginning of a boom that will carry him into Congress. He has written himself a most pessimistic, nearly mad and morbid letter on the subject.
